

North Central's Student-Run Chronicle wins 11 Awards for Journalistic Excellence

Staff members of North Central College's student-run daily newspaper, The Chronicle, garnered 11 awards for journalistic excellence in 2008, including one first place and five second place awards from the Illinois College Press Association (ICPA) at its annual conference in Chicago February 21.

For the first time since 2002, The Chronicle earned an honorable mention in the General Excellence category (non-dailies under 4,000 enrollment), recognizing the work of all editors and staff writers over a year's worth of issues. Awards include:

- * Honorable Mention in General Excellence
- * 1st place in-depth reporting: Mandy Bert '08, Kristin Sietsema '08 and Lindsay Jubeck '09 for a package of eight stories focusing on College environmental issues and initiatives
- * 2nd place front-page design: Lindsay Jubeck '09 and Marion Olea '09
- * 2nd place sports news story: Andrew Phillips '09
- * 2nd place sports page design: Andrew Phillips '09 and Chad Comello '10
- * 2nd place photo essay: Ben Chernivsky '09
- * 2nd place headline writing: Tori Elliott '09
- * 3rd place sports column: Mandy Bert '08
- * Honorable Mention sports page design: Andrew Phillips '09, Maria Mistic '09, Joe Norton '10 and Michael J. Slykas '09
- * Honorable Mention feature page design: Mandy Bert '08
- * Honorable Mention sports game story: Andrew Phillips '09