

University of Redlands Announces New Vice President of Academic Affairs

The University of Redlands has appointed Dr. David Fite as its new Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Fite currently is Vice Chancellor for Institutional Planning and Assessment at Chapman University, Orange, California.

Dr. Fite currently is Vice Chancellor for Institutional Planning and Assessment at Chapman University, where he has played a key role in developing and implementing a number of strategic academic initiatives.

Prior to his appointment at Chapman, Dr. Fite was Professor of English at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. In addition to compiling an outstanding record of teaching and scholarship, he took on several faculty leadership roles, including assessment of student outcomes and faculty professional development.

A native of Cincinnati, Dr. Fite received a B.A. from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio and earned the M.A. and Ph.D. in English from the University of Southern California.

